“ Erma loved the time she spent at Holy Name Catholic Church. I met Erma five years ago, but it feels I've known her much longer. Her love for God, family and church community was there for all to see. I will dearly miss your smiling face at mass! Rest In Peace Ms. Erma!

“ Erma always went out of her way to everyone she met, her students, and fellow catechists. When I was in graduate school she always took the time to see how I was doing and to offer words of encouragement when she didn't have to take the time to do that for me. And when our car broke down, Erma took time out of her busy day to take us grocery shopping. To paraphrase Shakespeare: The elements were so mixed in her that Nature stood up to all the world and shouted "This is a true daughter of God and sister of Jesus." Her light will be missed.

“ Erma loved to share her faith. She was full of enthusiasm and very generous with her time. She was always ready to help. I enjoyed working with Erma. May the Lord reward all the sacrifices she made in order to pass on the faith.
I am very grateful that I met Erma and that I had the opportunity to share time with her.
My prayers for her eternal rest and for all the family.
