April 22, 1930 - July 7, 2021

Ernest San Roman Oliver was born April 22, 1930 in San Antonio, Texas to Nikolasa San Roman and Frank Oliver. He was one of seven siblings Manuel, Mary, Janie, Frank, Francis & Esther. Ernest was married to the love of his life, Janie Martinez Oliver, for 66 years and is survived and will forever be honored through the legacy his 3 daughters Nelda Moreno, Erma Fischer, and Debra Oliver; his grandchildren Jeanette, Cassandra, Donny, Freddie, Erika, Viktoria, and Aidan; his great grandchildren Adriel, Isabella, Daniella, Anissa, and Eylah.

Ernest worked at Harrell Packing Company for 40 plus years as a butcher and never missed a day of work. Following retirement he continued working at Brackenridge Park for almost a decade as the train conductor; especially enjoyable to his grandchildren. Aside from working tirelessly, he remained a devoted family man, wealthy in family, generosity, selflessness, and unconditional love living solely to provide and care for his family. He never missed birthdays, graduations, celebrations, and/or any important dates to his daughters, grandchildren, extended family members, and friends.

Ernest was an avid sports fan, specifically a devoted Dallas Cowboys fan. He loved all sports football, basketball, baseball, and softball. He combined his love for sports, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and never missed any of their sporting events. Not only was he always watching sports on TV, he also enjoyed watching game shows, and he loved gambling and playing poker. Ernest took great pride in taking his entire family on vacations traveling to California sometimes numerous times a year, Las Vegas, and many other tourist destinations.
