Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

The second child of three sons, Ernesto was born to Santiago and Refugia Leos in San Antonio, TX on November 12, 1952. Ernesto was always a go-getter. As a young boy growing up on the city's east side, Ernesto served his community at his local church (Our Lady of Perpetual Help) as an altar boy and as a musician in the youth choir. He also was a member of the JROTC Chaminade Guard Armed Drill Team at Central Catholic high school where he graduated in 1971. Later as a young man Ernesto spent 6 years as an assistant coach and then head coach of boys' little league baseball teams at the Five Diamonds Baseball Park in San Antonio, TX. He held many jobs throughout his life and ended his career retiring from Amtrak. Ernesto found joy in his family and had a passion for the outdoors. When you'd put the two together his heart was overflowing with delight. He specifically enjoyed fishing, golfing, gardening and especially barbequing. He also had a fondness for helping people whenever the opportunity presented itself.

Therefore, shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. Genesis 2:24

She accepted him and his three wonderful children, Teresa, Ernesto Jr and Angela (mother Irene) into her heart. They were two peas in a pod that enjoyed each other's company immensely. Together they built a happy and healthy home for their loved ones with devotion and hard work. They provided a haven for their family whether it be a place to rest, a meal to eat or just somewhere to hang out.

Children's children are the crown of old men; And the glory of children are their fathers. Proverbs 17:6
