“ I am so deeply sadden to hear the loss of such a great young lady and friend whom I had a joy and pleasure of meeting her after I made her a job offer on 11/06/06. After hiring Esmeralda and getting to know her, she would often come by my office just to visit and catch up on what was going on with each of our lives. She always had such a positive attitude a bright and unforgettable smile and she always managed to make me smile and laugh even in my most stressful moments at the office or with family situations. She would always make me see the bright side of things and gave so much positivity and confidence in me each and every time. She was always asking about my children, always made me feel special especially when she gave me a hug and shared the love. I recently heard about her passing and could not hold back the tears. As heartbroken and sad as I am, I have to thank the Lord for bringing her into my life and help me recognize each day we live is a blessing and that there are good and great people that touch our lives with so much love as Esmeralda did. Rest in Peace my beautiful friend and thank you for your love, kindness and always caring about me. I will keep that love,positivity and your kind words of encouragement close to my heart always. My Dearest Angel in Heaven please watch over me....Henry Cruz

“ May God send comfort to the Ramos family in this trying time of sorrow. Esmer was light and love, a giving and generous soul who was always first to advocate for people who were wronged. She was an activist for human rights. She was a friend who gave whatever she had to comfort you and make you whole. And she could party like it was 1999! I first met Esmer back in the 90's when we worked in the Hospitality industry, and I saw her evolution over the last 25+ years, and how she grew into the beautiful person who has left me with so many wonderful memories I will forever treasure about her. It is so fitting she passed on Good Friday, as she is truly an Angel of God. She is resting in God's arms now, and may she finally be at peace. I will always love her and miss her.

This is a quote I think of for The Ramos Familia. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. From an Irish headstone."*

Esmer, my dawggy,,,that's what we would call each other when we saw each other, or were just acting silly on messenger. She was...no she is truly, one of a kind. She loved nature, she loved everyone. What I carry with me is the laughter you brot to me Every time we saw each other, and even when we were bak n forth on messenger. She was always talking to me about my art and how God wud channel me to paint when I wud tell her I was stuck on a peice. Thank you Father, for allowing me to be a part of one of your Angels....Esmer truly was an Angel, and her death was fitting that it happened on Good Friday.....that alone speaks volumes on who this person was...i will miss you my friend, but will remember your laugh when my days are dark. Love you my dawggy.....Cindy
