

Esmeralda Vidaurri Redgate

November 8, 1961 - April 4, 2014

Esmeralda "YaYa" Redgate, who was born on December 8, 1961 in San Antonio, Texas, went to be with our Lord Jesus on April 4, 2014 at the age of 52. She loved her family and she loved life. She was always willing to help her family and friends in any way she could, and she did this from her heart and with no expectation of anything in return. When challenged, she was never afraid to say what she felt, fight for what she believed, and do what she thought was right. Her favorite quote was "Dance like no one is looking...sing like no one can hear you...love like you can't be hurt," and she when she described who she was she said, "I'll always be a Diamond Girl...a jewel that is always wanted...the most precious of all stones ...this is who I am...one of a kind no one else like me... She was preceded in death by her father, Joe R. Vidaurri and her brother, Roland P. Vidaurri. She is survived by her mother, Julia Vidaurri; her husband, Steven Redgate Sr.; her daughters, Jessica Redgate and Lisa Vidaurri; her step-sons: Steven Redgate II and his wife, Brenda, Montgomery Redgate and his wife Alexandra, and Joseph Redgate; her sister, Diana Lopez; and her brothers Joe Vidaurri, Jr. and his wife, Marie, and Jerry Lopez his wife Janie. She is also survived by 10 grandchildren and 8 nieces and nephews, and many great nieces and great nephews. She was and will always be loved. She will always be missed, and her memory cherished.
