“ To all my Nava cousins. You all went above and beyond for your Mom/Grandma...caring for her all these years. Now she is healthy and at peace with Tio Jose and “ChaCha” ! Praying that God gives you all the peace and comfort you each need.

I have so many fun memories of when mom and dad and us kids would visit y'all here in San Antonio. Such a rowdy group of boys and of course Maria and I always had a blast painting our nails, listening to music and looking at the teen magazines! My mom and dad loved visiting with Tia Esperanza, we would always hear them laughing and talking over coffee. I also remember your mom pinching me all the time, on my cheek, on my chin, on my arm... haha. I love your mom and know she will be missed and never, ever forgotten!
