

Esteban C. Duarte

November 28, 1929 - April 30, 2022

Esteban C. Duarte passed in peace at the age of 92. He is survived by his wife, Sylvia to whom he loved and was devoted to for 70 years. He was born to Augustine and Refugia Cano Duarte on November 28, 1929.

He was a Loving father to his children, Dennis Duarte (deceased), Doris Villanueva, Debbie Duarte and Delilah Trevino, and favorite son in law, Charles Trevino.

Most certainly a Proud grandfather of Rochelle Villanueva, Christopher Villanueva, Adam Trevino, Monica Trevino, David Trevino and three great-granddaughters, Faith, Abryanna and Sofya.

He left numerous nieces and nephews, cousins and friends, whom he loved dearly.

Esteban was a Fox Tech high school graduate and soon after enlisted in the Army where he served in the Korean War. To the end, he was a proud and patriotic American. He retired from Kelly A.F.B. after 38 years. He remained active after retirement and decided to work for K-Mart, where he again retired. His life was providing for his family and working on projects around the house. There was no job he couldn't accomplish.

Esteban shared his life with his wife traveling, going to dances with his friends and helping out with church activities. He loved to barbeque for his family every chance he got. He loved basketball and football season, where he set his TV for Spurs games and Longhorn football. When he wasn't watching TV he liked reading the newspaper and books about U.S. History. During the winter he spent his time by the fireplace listening to Tejano music.

There was no challenge Esteban could not accomplish. He was determined to do anything for his family and thanked God everyday for his life. He was a devoted Catholic and a founding member of St. Margaret Mary's church for over 50 years.

Esteban knew he was truly blessed by God for his life here on this Earth.
