

Esteban Casias Gonzales

June 27, 1930 - March 12, 2007

Esteban Casias Gonzales II, devoted father and grandfather, died on March 12, 2007. He is survived by his beloved longtime sweetheart and wife, Margaret Gaitan Gonzales; his 4 loving children: Thelma Gonzales Self and husband Michael, Gloria Arce and husband Domingo deceased, Margaret Ann Gonzalez and husband Richard, and Esteban Gonzales, III and wife Jeanne; grandchildren: Michelle Valdez, Renee Jeanee Rangel, Nicholas Garcia, Joseph Gonzales, Emily Gonzales, Stephanie Ann Gonzalez, Marcus Dominic Arce and Anna Marie Arce; great-grandson: Gilbert Michael Rangel; a sister, Margarita Sepulveda and husband Juan; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents: Esteban Gonzales I and Margarita Casias Gonzales; 3 sisters: Zulema Diaz, Louisa Mermea, and Gloria Garza, and his only brother, Jesus Gonzales.

Born in Somerset, Texas, Esteban Gonzales proudly served in the United States Army for four years and fought in the Korean War. After returning to San Antonio, he met the love of his life and started his own family and his own independent construction company. He will be remembered for his strong, unequivocal work ethic and unending dedication to his family and friends. He was a self-made man, an hard worker and he became one of the most reliable and successful contractors in South Texas. His work crew was once photographed and featured in Newsweek magazine. He will be missed for his warm kindness, clever sense of humor, and never ending generosity. He loved going out to the countryside and tended to an array of livestock out at his ranch in Somerset. He was a kindhearted man and the stars won't shine as bright now that he's gone.
