“ Aunt Estela was one of a kind. I remember going to her house for parties and hanging out with Cindy. I remember a particular party where they had it in the back yard. She had some swings and a 2 carrier swing. Well, some kids were on that 2 swing and I happen to walk by it too close where I got hit in the head. I have the stitches and scar on my forehead. Good times and memories! Aunt Estela, my family and I will miss you but will always be in our hearts.

“ I will always remember my 8th birthday. My aunt Stella told me I could have a piñata or a doll. I chose piñata and it is a favorite forever memory of mine. A lovely big red heart. So special. I'll always remember the little Avon lipstick samples she shared. She was just a fun aunt! xoxo
