“ With Stella you would ALWAYS get that BEAUTIFUL SMILE of hers that would practically close her sweet cat-like eyes! I grew up with Stella, and that loving caring woman she was as an adult...was exactly Stella as a youngster. She was always so loving & respectful to my Grandma and Grandpa Serna- Grandpa would always take us to C.C. and I remember one of those times going into the water even after being told NOT TO, since the adults were going to the store, well- we almost DROWNED that day, shot WE NEVER did tell the adults about that lol... Then while riding in the Escaramuza she got trampled so many times during our practices, but Stella would just get up, face full of dirt with that smile of hers from ear to ear and got back on the horse cause she loved horseback riding so much!! All the Trail rides, dances & Fund raisers - we had so much fun! Never a dull moment with "Estelita", that is what my Grandparents would call her. Boy, I so hate that we lost touch over the years. Growing up and living so far apart does that- I have nothing but LOVE and fond memories of my "dear sister" and will always remember that wonderful smile when I talk to her in prayer.

YOU were taken way too soon girl- but you will never be forgotten-

Until our next reunion- Love Loretta Galindo

“ Over the 20 years that I had known Stella, she was always very nice to me and my boys. They still talk about going over at Easter and hunting for Easter Eggs and even took the grand kids as well. I was just talking to Jessica about her potato salad. I am very glad I that I had a chance to have known her.
