*It's still hard to accept that I can't visit you at your home and have the talks we used to have. But in my heart I know that I can still speak to you and that you can still hear me. Like the day that I was at your grave site and I felt the breeze pass over me after I poured the drink we shared over your grave. I felt your presence and my eyes watered. I felt a peace come over me and I knew you were there. I love and miss you

“ Mom, I can't express the words to tell you how much my heart is hurting right now. Knowing that I'm never going to see you or hear your voice anymore. My biggest regret is not being able to be with you to say my goodbyes, and to be with my family to comfort each other. Living so far away I wish I could have spend more time with you to give you more hugs and kisses and to tell you how much I love you. But God only knows that no matter what you will be with us in spirit. Mom I will miss our long talks on the phone. Hearing your voice always made my day and it was such a blessing. You will always hold a special place in my heart and I will forever be grateful for having a mom like you. So rest my beautiful mother for one day we will all be together. Till we meet again. Just know we will all be alright here, you have taught us well, go and be with my brothers and my son Ernest and tell them that we love and miss them dearly. Love your daughter Bebe and family ❤️
