Esther G. Perez

April 10, 1941 – April 27, 2015

Esther G. Perez left her physical life on April 27, 2015 to join her husband Paul and daughter, Diana in Eternal life.

Esther was born in Los Angeles, California on April 10, 1941. Esther joined the military to change the course of her life. She was stationed in Japan when she meet Paul, the love of her life. They married in California and they started their family in Paul's home state of Texas. They had two daughters, Lisa and Diana. Esther was an Army wife for twenty years and together they opened a family business. Esther enjoyed to travel with Paul, whether it a day trip, a trip across the United States, or a cruise. Esther enjoyed her various gardens and spending time with her family at home. Esther enjoyed being a grandmother to Kelly and Ryan. She allowed them to do things their mom was never allowed to do and she said that was a Grandmothers privilege.

Esther always said, " Who would believe a girl from Compton, California could have all her dreams come true." Esther truly enjoyed her life.

Esther G. Perez is survived by her loving daughter Lisa and her husband Gary, grandchildren Kelly and Ryan; Laura, her husband Rogelio, and their children. Her brothers and sisters by blood and marriage FernandoGenevieve, SallyCharles, Rachel, JennyEarnest, JessMatilda, Robert Nena, Joe, Terry, and BlancaRichard; and numerous friends, nieces, and nephews throughout Texas and California. She will be missed by her four-legged children, D O G and Nico.

I love you mom and I will miss our time together. –Lisa
