“ *My beloved mother; somehow words cannot express the emptiness I feel right now; we spoke almost every night and sometimes stayed on the phone for hours; I listen to your voicemail where you tell me "good night mija, I love you" and am comforted by your voice. I feel so fortunate that we were so close and I was able to run to you for almost anything; and you always knew what to say to me; I see the bed you slept on when you spent the night on weekends; I remember how I would crawl in with you in the morning before we had our morning coffee; I have so many good memories; you were always so humble and despite what you were going through, you never lost your will or your faith. Thank you for being my rock and loving me so unconditionally. May you rest in eternal peace mother; I will carry you in my heart forever.
Your daughter Chelo...*

“ Mother, I miss you so much already. I will be heartbroken the rest of my life, but I know you rest peacefully now without pain, without suffering and without dialysis. I am so thankful that I got to call YOU mother. You were my guiding light all the days of my life and I am so happy that we got to spend so much time together in your last years. I love you more than words can say and will forever be grateful for all you did for me. Please visit me in my dreams and let me know you are around. Madrecita mia, te quiero con todo mi corozon, hasta que nos veamos otra vez, te cantare todos los dias a tu retrato, I know you'll be hearing me. Love you.

“ My deepest sympathy to my cousins John, Sandra, Laura, Chelo and Dora. I'll always remember my tia's joyous laughter, her enthusiasm for life, her wonderful tortillas de harina, and most of all her beautiful singing voice which brought pleasure to all who heard it. May she rest in peace. Your cousin, Jaime.
