

Ethelyn "Lynda" Griffith Fischer

October 28, 1933 - June 20, 2013

Lynda passed into the hands of the Lord on June 20, 2013 after a valiant fight against cancer. Born in Eugene, Oregon she spent her early years with her first husband traveling and living throughout Europe as an Army spouse while raising and loving her children. She worked as a med-tech all her life, both in Europe and stateside, a job she loved. After moving to Texas in the early '80's, she knew she was home and married a native Texan, Alton Fischer. They had 23 wonderful years together. She learned how to two-step, became an avid gardener, and did all types of things she would have never done on her own. She also dearly loved to travel. Together with Alton she made numerous trips to Europe. Words cannot express how truly wonderful Lynda was. An active, energetic person, she will be missed by all. She is survived by her husband, Alton Fischer, four children, daughters Lisa Stipo and husband John, Tami Luckenback and husband Johnny, sons Rod Griffith and wife Wendy, and Doug Griffith and wife Susanna, eleven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Also left to miss her are her treasured dogs, Max, Mimi, and Gigi.
