

Etoy Frazier

January 16, 1917 - November 15, 2006

Etoy Frazier was born January 16, 1917 in LaVernia, Texas and died on Wednesday, November 15, 2006 in San Antonio, Texas. She was the daughter of Jessie Carroll McBride and Jessie Ellen Conn. She was married to Atlee Frazier. She grew up in Stockdale, Texas where she went to high school and was a member of the Stockdale Methodist Church. Etoy is survived by her daughter Jackie Cook and husband Bob Cook of Livingston, Texas and her daughter Marlene May of San Antonio. She is also survived by her six grandchildren, ten great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren. Etoy was preceded in death by her husband Atlee Frazier, her mother and father, and her sister Vera Wilma Salge. Family always came first with Etoy and she will be remembered for that total devotion to her family. Etoy enjoyed dancing, cooking large meals, camping, fishing, and playing card games. She was especially fond of her "Winter Texas" friends at Lake Corpus Christi, Texas where she would spend six months of each year. She was the "Queen of Happy Hour" each day where family and friends would gather on and around her
