

Eulogio Torres Macias Jr.

April 20, 1939 - August 2, 2025

Eulogio (Gino) T. Macias Jr., 86, passed away peacefully on Aug 2, 2025, in San Antonio, Texas.

Born on April 20, 1939, in Uvalde, Texas.

Gino embraced a life deeply rooted in faith following his conversion to Catholicism, a journey he shared with his wife and children. Throughout his life, he fulfilled his calling to serve the Lord in various ministries, including being a long-time professed member of the Order of Secular Franciscans and a dedicated member in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. He is fondly remembered for delivering the Gospel message with profound conviction, his engaging stories, deep wisdom, and his willingness to help those in need, no matter the time.

Gino is lovingly remembered by his wife Petra, children; Luis (Libby), Mario (Monica), Victor, Rafael (Rose), Rita Macias Salazar (Gilbert), along with his daughter-in-law Cheryl; brothers: Ignacio and Enrique (Petra), sisters-in-law: Maria and Diane; 20 grandchildren, and 25 great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Eulogio Macias, Sr.; mother, Maria; brothers, Arturo and Manuel; his son, Chris, and his daughter, Rosalinda Macias Santellana.

May his legacy of Love and Faith continue to inspire all who knew him.
