

Eunice Gonzalez

March 31, 1930 - August 26, 2024

Eunice G. Gonzalez “Morena”, 94, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away after a sudden illness on August 26, 2024. She was a loving mother, sister, grandmother and great-grandmother to her family, who loved her very much. She is preceded in death by her husband, Jose Isidro; parents, Gaspar G. Garcia and Beatriz Serna de Garcia; and siblings, Lilia Garcia, Gaspar Garcia, Jr. “Quinin”, Carlota Garcia, Eleazar “Pachol” Garcia, and Beatriz “Linda” Perez.

She was born in Monterrey, Nuevo Leon, Mexico on March 31, 1930 and became a naturalized citizen of the United States on October 23, 1980.

She married Jose Isidro Gonzalez on May 1, 1954 and they moved to San Antonio in the late 1950’s. She was a stay at home mom who loved to make doll clothes and collect items for the flea market. She loved riding the VIA transit system and went all over the city of San Antonio visiting all the malls. She was a very funny lady who loved collecting jokes in her handwritten “joke” book and then sharing with anyone who would listen. Her favorite places to eat were McDonalds, where they affectionately called her “Abuelita” and Luby’s.

She is survived by her loving son, Jose Gerardo Gonzalez, and wife, Elizabeth Leal Gonzalez; grandson, Joseph Edward Gonzalez and wife, Veronica and two great-grandchildren, Hailey Marie and Jovie Elizabeth. She is also survived by her sister, Josefina Garcia Rivas and numerous nieces and nephews.
