

Eusebio R. Talamantez

May 2, 1945 - December 25, 2016

Eusebio was born on May 2, 1945 in San Antonio, Texas and went to be with the Lord on December 25, 2016. He is preceded in death by his parents, Gilbert and Romana Talamantes, and sister, Socorro T. Alcocer. Eusebio is survived by his loving children, daughter Jessica Talamantez and fiancé David Ramos, sons, Eusebio Talamantez, Jr. and wife Jamie, and Michael Talamantez; sisters, Felice T. Carmona and Linda T. Ramirez; brothers, Gilbert R. Talamantez and Johnny Talamantez San Miguel; grandchildren, Isabel Talamantez, Taylor Talamantez, Isiah Talamantez, Eliah Talamantez, David J. Ramos and Ian Ramos; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Eusebio's children want everyone to know that their father lived his life in a manner that could only be described as "Proud". He was a "man's man", his voice was filled with so much wisdom and strength that when heard it could not be silenced. Eusebio came from a humble history, however he lived as if there was no obstacle he could not overcome. Whether it was from his cooking or his jokes he was at his happiest when he was receiving smiles from his friends and family. He enjoyed fishing and the outdoors. He prided himself when he was able to expose individuals to those activities when under normal circumstances they would have never experienced. Eusebio traveled to many places and experienced many things, however he was most at peace when he was at his home which he cared for dearly. Eusebio's children would like him to be remembered as a loving father and grandfather, a mentor but most importantly a "Proud Man".
