“Eva was a dear friend of mine since 1964. We both were very young and worked at Sears and Roebucks on SW Military Drive, back when each store had their own business office. She was the teletypist and I handled all the typing for the credit office and all the credit correspondents. She was always shy and bashful until she got to know you. But, as it turned out I ended up marrying her sister Connie's brother-in-law, Larry G. Hendricks, and that was when I became acquainted with the rest of Eva's family, now growing on 54 years. She was very dear to me, she could call and cheer me up when I was down, and would share her concerns for those who were so dear to her, especially her sweet daughter. Eva was such a caring, loving, and ever so sensitive person. She never wanted to ever hurt feelings, and if she thought she did she would tell me and ask what to do now? She was a wonderful Christian, wanting to be right with the Lord and wanted to attend church until her health really started failing, and she missed those that she worshipped with. Anyway, she will be dearly missed and will leave a vacant place in my heart, and there are not too many people that I can think about, "Eva was always there when I needed to talk to someone, I will miss her." Can't wait for THAT REUNION on the other side of Jordan.....God Bless her sweet heart. Judy Hendricks
