

Eva Collier Oberman

August 13, 1917 - October 30, 2007

Eva Collier Oberman, 90, joined her husband of 61 years, Roy, in heaven on Tuesday, October 30, 2007, following a long battle with diabetes. Her spirit was strong and loving until the very, very end when she simply fell asleep in the bosom of her Lord. Eva was born on August 13, 1917 in Barnsdall, Oklahoma to Charity Elizabeth and Grover William Collier. She graduated from high school in Wyandotte, Oklahoma and attended the University of Oklahoma in Norman. She married Albert Roy Oberman on September 18, 1939 and returned to San Antonio to become a devoted wife and mother. She loved gathering the family at home or at the lake to relish and enjoy her cooking which brought the children and grandchildren running. She loved playing cards with friends and was passionate about her family and being a full-time and devoted wife and mother. Eva and Roy enjoyed many trips traveling the world together. She was kind, gentle, humble and a constantly reassuring mother and friend to all who knew her.

Eva was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, 3 sisters and 1 brother. She is survived by her children James Roy Oberman and his wife Alicia of San Antonio, Texas, Gaylene Compton and her husband Jim of Boerne, Texas, and John Albert Oberman and his wife Nancy Potts of San Antonio, Texas; grandchildren, Michael Doyle Murphy & his wife Elizabeth, Julie Trautman and her husband Mike, and Lauren Collier, John Alexander & Louisa Potts Oberman; great grandchildren Kendall Compton Levin and

Patrick, Andrew, Peter, and John Murphy.
