“ Mrs. Vangie

I had the pleasure to meet in 2004, she would always greet you with a smile. When I transferred departments over to SWHS/ Career center in 2008 welcomed me and always would ask if I EVER NEEDED ANYTHING to please ask. Vangie knew my family, my boys graduated in 2007 and 2010, one of them was my Jeffrey. She loved my Jeffrey and would always keep an eye on him for me she'd tell me. Even after Jeffrey graduated EVERY time I'd see her she would ask for him. I am going to miss conversations and her smile. Eternal Rest my beautiful friend. With Deepest Sympathy to the family and Grand Daughters

“ Vangie was the most amazing woman. She showed compassion and kindness to everyone she met every day. She went out of her to greet students and staff at Southwest High School. I'll miss our morning talks, my friend. You always brightened my day. My prayers are with your family and your granddaughters.
