“ When I think of our Vangie, I think of kindness personified, competent steady work ethic, a dry sense of humor and AMAZING homemade tortillas! We prepared lots of meals together over the years. She and Henry were steadfast friends that we could always count on! Vangie was a gentle soul with a strong presence of Christ in her life. She loved her girls and her grandchildren and spoke of them often. She was an example of godliness through practical works! She loved Henry.....she loved him SO much! They were a "meant to be" pair and their names just fit together, Henry and Vangie! You will be missed, sweet Vangie....but we grieve with GREAT HOPE to see you again soon! Enjoy the place Jesus has prepared for you!

Oh my! How my heart aches with this temporary separation of my childhood friend. We were both 4 yrs of age when my dad became her family's Pastor. It has been a lifetime of sharing some precious moments with this sweet and godly woman. With her departure to be with the Lord, I believe God only takes the best! I find comfort and I am at peace knowing we will one day celebrate a great reunion! My love and prayers are extended to her husband, her daughters, and all her loved ones.
