

Evangelina C. (Sanchez) Jung

July 17, 2022

Evangelina C. (Sanchez) Jung left this earthly realm on July 17, 2022, at the age of 83 after a valiant fight with cancer at her home in San Antonio, Texas. In sorrow and sadness, we remember that she endured the cancer journey and fought the battle, but we rejoice because she gained the victory.

Eva was the proud mother of 10 children. She also raised her 3 grandchildren. When Eva's children were young, the phrase "stay-at-home-mom" didn't exist. It was considered customary for women to stay home and care for their children. She did this not out of obligation, but because of who she was. Eva was an exceptional mother, grandmother, and wife. She was always the first to offer help to others. She always ensured that every child who crossed her threshold was safe, fed, happy, and had a place to lie their head. Her work didn't stop after her children were grown, she continued caring for and raising her grandchildren.

Eva was the type of woman who was easy to talk to and get great advice from. While raising her children she was strict and firm, but still was the "Cool Mom" to be around and who played baseball with her children and grandchildren! Throughout her life she maintained a simple demeanor that won the trust and hearts of many. She was more than happy to have her children and grandchildren be the central figures in her life. Anyone who knew her, knew that her family was the star in her eyes. Even now many hearts are being changed because they remember her constant nurturing love and dedication to her faith.

Eva became a widow in 1991, and later met and married, Jesus “Chuy” Sanchez in 2005. Since that date, she and Chuy dedicated the rest of their lives to each other. July 30, 2022 would’ve been their 17th wedding anniversary. Eva’s faith in Jesus allowed her to undergo 28 rounds of radiation just to live comfortably and have precious time with her husband and family. Through her, we know what resilience and perseverance truly look like. Just because she is no longer here, it doesn’t mean she lost her fight. Cancer did not win. Cancer could not steal the life God gave to Eva. Eva did not die. She simply moved from this earth to the Lord’s mansion in the sky. Eva is more alive today than she ever was here on earth. The prayers of healing for Eva have been answered, God has healed Eva of cancer by taking her to be his Angel in heaven.

Evangelina joins her daughter, Eva Jung-Ward, her parents, Camilla & Jose Cruz, brother, Gilberto “Gil” Valdez, grandparents, Cruz & Miguel Valdez, & Aunt/Godmother, Margarita V. Luna in heaven. She is survived by her husband, Jesus “Chuy” Sanchez, her 9 remaining children, Sylvia Moreno, Irma Felczak, Joann Jackson, Norma Hause, Diana Ibanez, Yolanda Jung, Clemente “CJ” Jung, Laura Serna, and Oscar H. Jung III, sister, Yolanda Cruz, numerous, grandchildren, great grandchildren, great, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, godchildren, cousins, and friends. A Memorial Service will held on Saturday, August 13, 2022 at 12:00pm at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

~To Those I Love~

When I am gone, release me, let me go. You have so many things to see and do. You mustn’t tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it’s time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It’s only a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won’t be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will hear. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near...

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all of my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say "Welcome Home!"

LI

You were home to me, the constant in my life, the soul that put my soul at ease. The emptiness and lost feeling with you gone is overwhelming, but the thought of knowing that I am your grand daughter and your blood is coursing through my veins helps me to move forward in life to be the strong person you raised me to be. My precious grandmother. Rest in the heavens among the angels.
