

Evangelina V. Rosales

September 26, 1924 - April 20, 2013

Evangelina Villarreal Rosales, born in Laredo, TX September 26, 1924 passed peacefully from this earth, April 20, 2013 in San Antonio, TX.

Predeceased by her husband of 60 years, Ramon Rosales2006, Eva was a hardworking and true homemaker in every sense of the word. She was a loving mother and grandmother who brought us laughter and who demonstrated true love for her family. She had various interests which included sewing, quilting, ceramics and tending to her yard and plants. Thank you mm for the tamaladas, learning to drive so you could take us to school, the shrimp cocktails that welcomed us back from fishing trips with pop, and for so many other memories. We are grateful and blessed that you were always there for us, family, friends and neighbors, ALWAYS.

Eva was predeceased by her parents, Ernestina Delgado and Jesus Villarreal, her brothers Jesus E., Juan L. and Abraham G. Villarreal. Early last year when she learned of her last surviving sibling's passing, her response was, "Ya se están acabando los Villarreales."

Eva is survived by her children, George Rita, Grace, Angelica Palomino Jesus, and Hector Oralía, nine grandchildren, and ten greatgrandchildren. We miss her dearly, but take comfort in knowing that she now rests in peace.

Ya se acabaron los Villarreales.
