Mrs. Torres is survived by her loving husband of 61 years, Raul Leo Torres; daughters, Jenny Martinez and Sandra Zook. She was preceded in death by her only son, David Anthony Saenz (wife, Inez), her siblings; Frank, Connie, Eloisita, Margaret and Florence. She will be dearly missed by her loving grandchildren; David, Erin, Greta, Selina, Anthony, Kayla, Kim, Brandon, numerous great grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Evangeline's love for her family superseded anything else in her life. She loved Bingo nights, traveling to Mexico City, Acapulco, Jamaica and Las Vegas. She always made sure that everyone was well fed and enjoyed entertaining large groups of family and friends.

“ Going shopping with Yaya and Aunt Florence was always an adventure full of hilarious fun. Losing the car at Wonderland Mall; having to wait until the lot was empty to find our parking spot. Laughing so hard that we wet our pants and that made us laugh even more. 💜

So sorry I could not go to the services. My Mom, Manda and I would go to play bingo with Vangie and Claudina every Sunday and it was such a joy to talk and enjoy our together time. Really miss those days but they're sweet memories now. I know she's in a better place with all her sisters, her son and her mother and father. Rest in peace sweet Lady. Missing you already. 😞
