

Eve E. Beare

December 9, 1973 - March 1, 2023

Surrounded by her loving family, Eve Enriquez Beare passed peacefully and comfortably on Wednesday, March 1 at the age of 49. Born and raised in San Antonio, Eve grew up to be a caring mother, heartwarming sister, affectionate daughter, kind-hearted friend, and proud grandmother. She lived a full life without regrets by being the most humbling and free-spirited person. Her family and friends describe her as funny, outgoing, and creative. Eve loved DIY projects and was enthusiastic to learn about the world. Eve was always a hard-working, independent woman. She earned her Architecture Engineering Associate's Degree from ITT Technical Institute in 2009 while raising her children.

She enjoyed traveling to Paris, Cancun, Hawaii, and multiple other states. In her downtime when she wasn't joyfully dancing and belting karaoke, she loved to garden, go on walks in nature, and throw the best parties for her children and family. Eve also loved to exercise, read educational books while sipping on her coffee, and practice mindfulness.

Even in hard times, she stayed positive and upbeat. She always looked out for family and friends before herself, even until the end. Because of her selflessness, Eve expressed how her goal in life was to start a resource and transitional living center for those previously incarcerated.

Her family is and will always miss her pearly-white smile, inspiring phone calls and texts, contagious laugh, and confident style.

She will stay the main character and light in our lives forever (because it's her world and we are just living in it).

Preceded by: Her brother Jesse Ibarra.

“ Beautiful Eve. Words and tears will never express the hurt I feel from your passing, it just sits within me. I wish daily for this all to had just been a dream. When I see your pictures, it just makes me smile. When I hear your voice it brings joy and tears. I was thankful and blessed to have made memories with you. You lit so bright on a daily that our Lord said," She is the angel I've been looking for ". Now you shine down brighter for the world to see. You will always be missed and loved from down here in the world! Never will you be forgotten! Let our brother know that I said hi. Now you two can dance the days away, run through the beautiful sky together, have brother and sister talks but most importantly, now you'll can live with not a single worry or pain to feel. I will forever love you Eve and I will forever miss you ❤️

“ Letter to Eve , words can't explain how much the family is hurting from your lost it seems almost unrealistic . Hearing the news shattered a-lot of hearts and created a-lot of confusion , and a lot of what if 's like what if we were there more or what if she just needed a helping hand or a hug , or why did god take her so early, at some point we all have to leave earth one day because we are human and that's the circle of life , god chose you to go help him change the world because there is only one soul like yours, one smile like yours and only one you he saw that you were trying to better and change the world with your humbleness and kindness, I've never met a woman who is so humble a passionate about the things she loves , she was the most beautiful and humble and genuine soul we have all ever met , me and my family have got the chance to create loving memories with you and our cousins, memories that are not forgotten you have taught me a lot of forgive n forget and to not hold on to things that hurt ppl but only to forgive them for the hurt and it changed my life , me and my family are glad to call you our Tia and to have you as one we will never forget the memories that we hold in our head and we will forever speak on your name as one of the greatest, your heart will forever live in ours as we grow older and spread the love and wisdom u did . I just want you to know that you are loved from all of the family and you will be missed. We forever thank god that you did not leave this earth with hurt or uncomfortable , but you left with peace in your heart as the family gathered with hurt of your loss we remember that you're dancing in heaven celebrating a new life , till we met again forever and always love you
