“ I so wish that the miles did not separate us. I would love to share in the homegoing service of Mrs. Belk. She was a gracious woman and an amazing hostess. When I visited for Janet's wedding, she made me sugar toast. I believe it was one of Gary's favorites. Every time I have made it since, I have thought of her and her joy in preparing food that made others happy. She was a great example for a young girl. I am glad she has been reunited with her beloved. What a joyous occasion that must have been!!

Evelyn was a hoot! I loved every moment I was blessed to spend with her. She loved her God and her family. I'll never forget her love for dressing up - even when she was housebound. Such a joy of life! She will be missed. God bless you Janet and Clinton for the love you poured into her.
