“ Grandma

I remember coming to your house as a kid and running through the sprinkler in the back yard. I grew out of that but still always enjoyed visiting my relatives in San Antonio. I will miss you but never forget you.

“ Great Grandma,

We only met once I believe but still, I've heard nothing but great things about you. You will be missed greatly but we know you are in a much better place. We love you very much and God Bless you Great Grandma.

“ Her children rise up and call her blessed...Proverbs 31:28

Though we grieve, we can count our blessings. As we have truly been rewarded with such a dear, sweet Mother. We will love and miss her always.

“ ALL ABOUT G.G.

*I see your smiling eyes
And how precious your smile is.
I hear your sweet laugh
And I can feel your gentle hug.
Your generous nature pulls me close
And I can sense a goodness within myself.

“ Dear Grandma,

I can't believe that I have not seen you in nearly 17 years, and only written or spoke with you a few times since then. The only excuse I have, is that I still have work to do in dealing with grief over losing my Mother.
