

Evelyn L. Cordero

September 6, 1934 - October 15, 2015

Evelyn Cordero passed at the age of 81 on October 15, 2015. Evelyn was born on September 6, 1934 in Winterset Iowa. She was preceded in death by her parents John Delmer Sandusky and Gladys Delight McCorkle and her sisters Ruth Sandusky and Mary Sandusky. Evelyn graduated from Van Meter high school then join the United States Airforce around 1952. About two years later, Evelyn shared her life with the late Felix Cordero Jr. Together, they had two children Richard Felix Cordero and Tina Lynn Cordero. Evelyn loved to travel the world with her young family from North Africa to the Philippians and back to the United States. She finally settled in San Antonio, TX and began to work for The University of Texas Health Science Center where she worked for the next 20 years and retired. Throughout Evelyn's life, she loved to bowl. Evelyn traveled from Florida to Nevada for national bowling tournaments throughout the year. She bowled weekly until her breast cancer became more sever. Evelyn is survived by her children Richard Felix Cordero Vicki, daughter Tina Lynn Schubert Rodney; granddaughter Ashley Cordero-Estrada.