“ Pop and Mom would take us to San Antonio to visit where Evelyn and I played jacks. I hardly ever won, lol. We also had gourd fights in their back yard with William and Lloyd now that was some fun! Yes I got ganged up on being the runt! Lol. Those were good times. Rest in peace Evelyn you will be missed.

“ My heart goes out to the Pluchinsky during this difficult time. Evelyn was a wonderful sister and sister in law, she welcomed me to Covalt family with open arms. Evelyn was always there to help me take care of her brother Bill when he became ill, she was by his side till his passing.
She loved joining her kids and grandkids on fishing trips to Corpus, Aransas Pass and Goose Island. She always helped out with the grandkids before school and after school. Evelyn you will be greatly missed !
