

Everardo R. Gonzalez

July 28, 1932 - November 9, 2022

Everardo Gonzalez Ramirez, surrounded by his family, was peacefully called home to be the Lord on Wednesday, November 9, 2022.

Everardo was born in Cerritos San Luis Potosi, Mexico on July 28, 1932 to Francisco González and Consuelo Ramirez . He was the second youngest of 8 children. On December 30, 1956 in Waco, Texas, he married his bride, Yolanda Canales, and moved to Puebla, Mexico, where they raised their three children, Everardo Gonzalez Jr.(deceased), Yolanda M. Gonzalez and Rafael Gonzalez. Throughout his life, Everardo had a successful sales and distribution career in wine and fine spirits, traveling throughout all of Mexico until he retired in 1992.

He very much enjoyed being a member of Parque España, loved playing dominoes and never met a dog he didn't like. He was an avid sports fan and never missed a fútbol game, with Puebla being his absolute favorite soccer team. His favorite football team was the Dallas Cowboys. He and his wife, to be close to their children, moved to San Antonio, Texas in 2012. He made friends with fellow dominoes lovers and played with them every single week. He stayed super active and was kind of famous for his amazing paella. He will be dearly missed, but will remain alive in our hearts until we meet him again.

“ *Everardo always greeted me with a welcoming smile and an outstretched hand. Such a sweet man. We know there will be a continuous domino game amongst "the greats" now that he has joined the table in heaven. What a party they are having. Prayers for peace and comfort for his family during this time. God bless you.
Rest in peace Everardo.
