“ My deepest condolences to to the family and close friends of Fannie Hewitt. She will be missed. She was a wonderful volunteer at The Institute of Texan Cultures. What a talented presenter she was of the "Tex-Kit" outreach program that was taken out to schools and places in the community. She consistently received excellent evaluations from the contact teachers. Fannie was a valuable docent who was greatly appreciated by the ITC Staff. Knowing and working with her was a joy. RIP, Fannie. I am so glad I had the pleasure of knowing you.

“ Fannie was such a wonderful neighbor. She and Charles were the best people to be your neighbor for this first-time home buyer. I had some great talks over the fence with her. She had a marvelous sense of humor, a great laugh, and an eclectic view on a host of subjects (her teacher past showing up). My best memories of her were those days we would get together spontaneously on her porch or mine or Phyllis's house. Wine and laughter were included in these impromptu meetings. I really missed her when she moved to Houston. She was a lovely woman and friend.
