“ I knew "Frank" as one of the many Hill Country poker players I've had the privilege of serving for 6 years now. Every night he would come in and ask, "What's for dinner darling?" I'd make him a large sweet tea with lime and his usual dinner salad with grilled chicken, strawberries, red onion, oil and vinegar dressing, and 2 Garlic toasts. He loved the toast. All of the players loved Frank and enjoyed playing poker with him especially since he always seemed to be a winner of the Bad Beat! Frank, 281 Poker room was blessed to have you as a member and friend.

“Farokh and I came to United States in early 1970's. We are distant cousin, but very close. We went to National University in Iran, he studied economics and I studied history. We both went to Graduate School in St. Mary's university here in San Antonio, he studied Business Administration and I studied political science. We were roommates for years until he and Sandra Bell married in mid 1980's.

Farokh loved children, was an exemplary father and a kind person. He lived a simple life, helping others rather than worrying about himself. His life was dedicated to care for his family, especially his children. He was a best father and very giving.

Who ever knew Farokh, would soon find out how kind and an honest person he was. God bless his soul, his family should be proud of Farokh, since he embodied the trade of best father, son, brother, and a friend. He was loved by those who crossed his life.

We do not know, but because of who he was, I know he is in a better place with Lord, and receiving his life that he deserved.

Peace on earth,
