

Fay Louise Smith

April 16, 1926 - July 20, 2020

Fay Louise Smith gained her Angel wings on July 20, 2020 at the age of 94. She was born on April 16, 1926, in Spicewood, Texas to Ralph and Beulah Holloway.

Louise was married to James D. Smith on November 4, 1978. They shared a loving relationship for 41 years and merged two families into one.

She was an LVN and worked at the San Antonio State Hospital until 1961. While there, she took great pride in her job and strived on helping others. Plants were her passion and she got much enjoyment out of planting and working in her flower beds. She would spend hours working outside with nature. A green thumb she definitely had, because she could grow anything. Fishing was a great joy for Louise. Every summer she would fish with her children and grandchildren at Lake LBJ. Also, music and traveling as something she loved. She never made it to Alaska and Hawaii, but did succeed in visiting all the other 48 states.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents, brother Dean, sister Elberta, and daughter Elaine.

She is survived by her husband J.D. and their combined 6 children, Joe, Lydia, Larry, Gary, Sharie and Mary. She was blessed with 20 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren, and had several cousins, nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held Wednesday, July 29, 2020 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South at 2:00 p.m. A graveside service will immediately follow. Funeral will be recorded and shown on the website as well as a big screen from the parking lot while tuning to the radio station 101.5. Flowers and donations may be sent to 1700 S.E. Military Drive, San Antonio, TX 78214.
