

Felipe Patlan Luna

October 2, 1934 - November 3, 2020

Felipe Patlan Luna was born on October 2, 1934 and was called home by the Lord on November 3, 2020 at the age of 86 years old. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Pedro and Elena, his parents Luciano and Julia, his brothers Jesus (Chuy) and Pete, his sister Irene, his wife Santitas, his son Felipe (Chito), his grandsons Baby Sam and Mark Anthony Orozco, and his great grandson Baby Luna. He is survived by his sisters Guadalupe Ramirez and Estella Cantu, brothers in law Marcelo Cantu and Antonio Mendoza, sister in Law Dominga Luna, his daughter and son-in-law Josie and Sam Orozco, daughter in law Sally Luna, his grandchildren April and Lorenzo Garza, Nicole Orozco, Felipe III and Victoria Luna, Jesse and Stephanie Luna, James and Priscilla Luna, Luciano and Amanda Luna, his great grandchildren Julissa, James and Jocelyn Luna, Michael and Natalie Garza, Ariana Luna and Luciano Luna Jr as well as numerous nieces, nephews and friends. Felipe was a wonderful family man who loved to have a great time. He was a concrete finisher by trade and worked on various projects throughout the city including the Tower of the Americas, the UTSA original main campus, the Nelson Wolff Stadium and the Alamodome. He has passed his strong work ethic down to his family. In his retirement years, he would tell his nearest and dearest that he was most proud of the work at the Alamodome. In his down time, Felipe loved to dance and listen to live conjunto music as well as play billiards. He loved to spend time and joke around with his grandchildren and great grandchildren. The patriarch of the Luna - Mendoza family has left many wonderful memories and will be greatly missed.
