

Felix F. Martinez

October 1, 2008 - August 18, 2008

Felix F. Martinez, born October 1, 1929, went to be with the Lord on Monday, August 18, 2008 at the age of 78. Mr. Martinez was born in Eagle Pass, Texas and lived most of his life in San Antonio. He served in the US Navy, retired from the US Postal Service after 34 years as a letter carrier. Mr. Martinez was a longtime member of Holy Name Catholic Church. He coached girls CYO track and softball at Holy Name for over 30 years and the softball field was dedicated and named after him. His son Felix Martinez Jr. preceded him in death. Survivors include his loving wife of 52 years Odelia Odie Martinez, daughters Elizabeth M. Liz Smith and husband Eugene J. of San Antonio and Esther Maldonado, daughter-in-law Patricia Ann Martinez of Schertz, sister-in-law Argentina Martinez, brothers Miguel Martinez and wife Minerva of San Antonio and Secundino Martinez and wife Betty of San Antonio, 7 grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Tribute Wall

ZC

“ My sincere condolences for your lost. I had the honor of working with Felix at the Highland Hills post office. Again my deepest sympathy to all the family and God Bless.

Zeke Castillo - August 22, 2008 at 12:00 AM

LG

“ To Mr. Martinez, may you rest in peace. I will miss seeing you begin your morning walks every morning as I would be on my way to work. To Mrs. Martinez, my deepest condolences be with you. Thank you for being such welcoming neighbors when I first moved

Lupe Gutierrez - August 21, 2008 at 12:00 AM