

Fermin Gaitan

August 5, 1968 - May 12, 2022

Fermin Gaitan, age 53, was called home on the morning of May 12th, 2022 from complications after heart surgery. He was born to Irene and Rodolfo Gaitan on August 5th, 1968 in San Antonio, Texas. He is reunited in death with his parents and his daughter Sarah.

Fermin enjoyed movies, music, fishing, food and spending time with his family; joy that he passed on to his children and grandchildren. He is survived by his daughters Samantha and Stephanie, his son Nicholas and their mother Dora; along with his six grandchildren Christopher, Catherine, Alexzander, Marston and Koda.

Fermin grew up in San Antonio where he was a proud Harlandale Indian and member of the community, attending Faith Bible Church and working for many years in medical transportation for the elderly and disabled until deciding to step down from leadership and began working in land excavation.

When not spending time with his children he could be found with his siblings Janie, Betty, Diana, Pete and Max or Magda and the Garza family. Fermin was a beloved father, grandfather, brother and uncle who was always in the center of any gathering. He made everyone around him smile or laugh with corny jokes or lines from movies; the grill master for every cookout he would give a hug smelling of smoke with a drink in his hand and a smile on his face.

Our family is grateful to know that Fermin is at peace, and takes comfort knowing we will see him again one day. Services will be held at Mission Park South on the 28th of May at 3:00 PM, all are welcome to celebrate the life of Fermin Gaitan.

My name is Jennifer Zorola and I am Samantha's sister in law. Where do I start? Mr. G was a great man. He absolutely adored his 3 children. He held them so high just like so many of us parents do. In my family I'm known to be the life of the party and so was he. Idk if it was just me but sometimes the jokes he would say just flew by, either I slow on catching it or it was just a corny joke. For a couple of years my brother had a fantasy football league. Draft night was the night. The night Mr. G would draft almost every single player on the Cowboys team. Well you can guess how his record was..... just as bad as the Cowboys. We'd always give a hard time, but it never failed it was a repeat every year. That's just how true he was to his Cowboys.

The last time I saw Mr G was at one of the babies birthday party. Boy did he have a great time that night. I kinda got in trouble too, because supposedly they thought I was the one that kept giving him beer, but truthfully it wasn't me. I swear!

In closing, It was no secret your dad loved y'all very much. To my drinking buddy and cigar smoking sidekick you will be truly missed. Your beer and cigar will always be at the table for you. Rest easy Mr G...we love you.
