“ My condolences to the familia 🙏 please give my tia a hug for me. I love my tio very much ,he is such a good hearted man. Tio loved my ma so much, Berta his sister ❤️. He would always come visit her and bring her some food that he made. When I would visit from Florida he would stay for awhile and just hang out with my ma and I. He would always tell us stories and jokes. He made us laugh, that was priceless to see them together ❤️ Love you tio, I love my tia and primos and primas very much. Tio is in good hands with the good Lord and he is catching up on his conversations and time with my ma and his familia in heaven ❤️ I will be there in spirit, may God Bless you all.

“ My condolences to my dear uncle’s family.
Tio Fermin was a great man. Though I have many memories of my uncle, my most beautiful ones were those of when he would visit my momma, his sister Berta. He would check in on her, bringing her breakfast he had cooked for her. Usually some very picosos garbanzos. Momma loved them. He would not just drop them off, but would stay and visit with momma.
He loved my momma and it was heartbreaking to see him when he heard of my momma’s passing. He visited her the previous day and returned the next day believing my momma was still alive. It was as if his heart stopped for a bit. He loved her so. She was his “Manita”, and he was her “Manito”.
After momma went to Heaven, a couple of times, Tio would call me to let me know he had some nopalitos for me and for me to pick them up. He knew I loved pecans so he would give me some as well.
Tio never had a frown on his face, was always ready to listen and always spoke lovingly of his family.
I love him and miss him so.

That was beautiful cousin, thank you! My Tia Bertha and my dad were very close. It consoles me to think that they reunited in heaven when my daddy left this world. ❤️
