“ I have many fond childhood memories of Fern, especially sleepovers with Jann and evenings skating, and family outings together. Her love was evident to all who knew her. May the Lord comfort the entire family in their loss. “For me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain”. Brenda Landrum

“ I met her when I was working at Texas Bank - East and Fern took care of our office needs...moving on to her and Melvin taking care of my office needs at our small business. She took care of business cards, forms, stationary, stamps etc. Every December around Christmas time we anticipated the visit from Fern knowing we were going to receive a tin of shortbread cookies, a Fern George colander and a nail file and smiles, laughter and lots of hugs and love. Who ever had the pleasure of knowing her and her sweet husband were blessed by God and her faith and love of others will be remembered until we are gone. Until we meet in paradise sweet lady.

“ Ms. George was the epitome of a Christian. She shared love, laughter and a hug wherever she went. I met her in the early 1980's when I worked for an oil and gas company. She went on to provide my wedding invitations, my children's graduation invitations, she even gave me a sapling to plant in my yard when I lived on Leonidas. She would bless our entire office when she walked in the door. I will forever hold her in my heart and will try to live by her example.

“ I will never forget Mrs George and all the love she showed everyone she met. She watched me & my siblings grow up at Grace UMC and she never forgot a face or person. To know Mrs George was to love Mrs George and the world will certainly be a little darker without her in it.
