“ Good morning Javier and Albert I want to send out condolences from our entire family to yours. Mr. Salinas was one of very few men that was a inspiration to the community. I remember Mr. Salinas when we were kids playing ball we were about 9-10 years of age he was always there at the games just like many others. He was always helping and talking to the kids that played with ball. Not knowing how much he was a roll model to many. Just his presence inspired me to spend time with family and not pawn them off to others. As I was a young man growing up and had my own children. Mr. and Mrs. Salinas took care of my children when i was working. For that I have always been appreciative of them and the entire family for that. He will greatly be missed. Thank you for always being there for us. Love yall.

“ Will forever remember Beto; his kindness, his generosity, his sense of humor, among other things. & of course when he won the Camaro. Think it was a 1968 Chevy Camaro, one of the first Camaro's ever made. My condolences to the family especially to Eloina, Albert & Javier.
