

Florence Marie Lindsay

August 25, 1915 - March 16, 2008

Florence Marie Lindsay beloved mother and grandmother went to be with the Lord on Palm Sunday, March 16, 2008 at the age of 92. She was born on August 25, 1915 in San Antonio, Texas. She was preceded in death by her husband Ray Lindsay, her parents James Peyton and Florence Bell Carr, brothers: George and Bill Carr. She is survived by her son and daughter in law James Martin and Barbara Sue Lindsay, her granddaughter Jennifer Sue Lindsay, her niece and nephew Lisa and Bill Carr. Florence lived her grace filled 92 years in her beloved San Antonio. She graduated from Brackenridge High School in the class of 1933. She attended San Antonio College. She worked in the Finance and accounting Division of Fort Sam Houston from 1941-1984. She retired after attaining an unprecedented 4000 hours of sick leave. She was an active member of Lakeview Baptist Church for more than 50 years. She faithfully served the Lord by working as a board member for the church school, teaching Sunday school and singing in the church choir. She was an active member of NARFE and the Highland Park Neighborhood Association. A special thanks is given to her friends: Sherrill Foster, Dana Zuniga and Reed Brown who faithfully walked with her through the last hard years of her life. Florence was a loving and devoted mother and grandmother. She knew and trusted her Lord, Jesus Christ, and is joyfully in His presence today. The family thanks and praises God for her life and all she meant to those who loved her.
