“ So sorry to hear about your mom's passing. It's so hard to lose your mom. I realized after my mom was gone that there were things I shared with her and no one else. I still miss her so much. I'll be praying for you all that you feel God's comfort as you mourn.

“ She was such a beautiful soul who steared me in the loving ways of praising the Lord. I loved the smell of her homemade chicken and dumplings cooking in the kitchen and the taste of her homemade fudge. I have so many wonderful memories of her. Etta, thank you for allowing me the blessing of being part of the clan all those years ago. May God provide strength and peace during the time. With love, Lysa Salay Aguilar.
