“ To my Primo Gregorio Alvarado, Jr., at the passing of his beautiful wife we extend our love and prayes. I do want to share with you and your precious family, Our pastor shared once at the funeral of our Tia Susana, that when we go to see a love one who has been visiting off to the airport, and when boarded, and the airplane takes off, we watch it fly off and then we don't see it anymore, we tend to say, It's gone, well, no it is closer to it's destination, so is my Primo's dear wife, Flora, she is not gone, Flora has arrived. May the God of all comfort, Yito and family, embrace you with His peace which surpasses all understanding. Love and Prayers, your Prima, Sarah Quintero Martinez, and husband, Ed Martinez. Love you Primo, take care of yourself.

My deepest condolences to the Alvarado family. Your mom was like no other. You can't find a mother now adays like her. A Mom that that her children listen too. Family gathering every Sunday church with her grown children and lunch afterwards. Holiday gatherings, cooking and baking. Sharing her faith with everyone. I will miss her sending me quarterly prayer books. Love you Mom Alavardo, Rest in Peace. You have gone straight to heaven. With Love Diane Soto
