“ There are so many memories of growing up without our own father, Salvador L. Montez; who passed away when Tio Tino was just a teenager. We looked up to Tio Tino as a guiding light in our lives forever. He was always so happy to see us three of his brother's children. We were special to him because his brother wasn't here to watch over us. But he and our other Montez uncles helped influence us and guide us through out our lives but he and Tio Lopo especially. I rarely got to visit as an adult but we would connect by phone each other every now and then and catch up. Every time we did he always would tell me how much he loved us and if we; my brother Pole' or I ever needed anything, to call on him. We have been blessed to never have had to do that but he always wanted us to know he was there for us. I will miss him dearly and I pray for both of you as you go forth in life.
