“ I did not know you as well as I wanted to. But I know that your heart was the size of the ocean. And you loved without limitations. All the family I saw at your service were brought together by your kindness. And I am glad not only that I knew you for a time but that I am related to such a loving individual. Your goodness will pass on through me and many other lives that you touched while you were here on earth. I love you great granma <3 may you finally rest in eternal peace~

“ Florinda was my mother's first cousin, Florinda's mother, and my mother's father were brother and sister.

My mother (Esther Morales Liedecke) and Florinda were always on the phone together. They would call each other several times a day. When I would ask my mother "Who were you talking to?" She would respond "The Southside Reporter of Elmendorf" My mother would affectionately refer to her cousin as the Southside Reporter, because Florinda knew all the chisme.

My mother, Esther Morales Liedecke is the last of her siblings and cousins. She loved her cousin Florinda dearly.

May Florinda Rest In Peace.

*Respectfully,
Joseph Liedecke*
