“ Florinda Flores Mejia-Lobo

Mi mama...just a few things I remember about my mom...she was the baby sister of Augustine, Herminia and Fidel. She loved almond joys, she never learned how to swim. I remember her laughing so hard while watching The Carol Burnett Show.

She always put other people's needs before hers and with 11 kids and barely enough food to eat she would invite or welcome guest into our very small house.

I remember my aunt Herminia "Mini" coming over on Friday night's for the weekend and we played loteria "Mexican bingo" until the wee hours of the morning. I remember her brother (Fidel) coming in the the middle of the night drunk knocking or rapping on the windows calling for my mother to let him in. He would say he his sweetest voice manita abria me la puerta open the door let me in...of course she would let him and wake everybody in the house.

This reminds me of the parable of Jesus tells of the friend asking for bread.

Luke 11:5-10

A.S.K.

The parable of friend coming at midnight asking for three loaves of bread How gracious would God the father give us the true bread from heaven if asked him? Jesus is the true bread of life...we need all three, Father, Son-and Holy Spirit

John 6:30-33;48

For this is the will of my Father,that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day." John 6:40
