

Floy Alene Stong

August 11, 1919 - May 25, 2008

Stong

Floy Alene Stong was born in Nogales Arizona on August 11, 1919 and passed away Sunday, May 25, 2008 at the age of 88 years in San Antonio, Texas. Floy had worked as a registered nurse for 50 years, starting with the Red Cross during WWII. She had lived the past 34 years in Harlingen, Texas. She was dearly loved by family and friends alike. She will be remembered for her compassion and innate interest in all things. She reveled in spending time with her friends and took great joy in playing bridge, watching birds, reading, working cross word puzzles and spending time at the beach. Floy is preceded in death by her husband Thomas W. Stong and daughter, Cynthia L. Hack. She is survived by: sons, Thomas W. Stong II and Craig F. Stong Janice and seven grandchildren. The family wishes to thank the third floor staff at St. Luke's Hospital and the nurses at Vitas Hospice for their compassionate care. A rosary will be recited at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North on Wednesday, May 28, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. Graveside services will be held Thursday, May 29, 2008 at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Alamo Ovarian Cancer Alliance or the charity of your choice.
