

Floyd Dean Birdsong

March 21, 1939 - September 2, 2021

He was born in Newport, Arkansas to James Alvin and Willie Mae Birdsong.

Floyd joined the military at the age of 17 and served a total of 32 years in 3 Branches of the Armed Forces (Army, Navy, and Air Force).

In 1970 Floyd met Diana in Long Beach, CA. They married on Dec 30, 1972 and were fortunate to be blessed with almost 49 years of marriage.

Floyd was preceded in death by his father James Alvin Birdsong, Mother Willie Mae Birdsong, sister Virginia Armstrong and son James Keith Birdsong. He is survived by his loving wife Diana Birdsong, twin brother Boyd Gene Birdsong, daughter Dolores Jean Gaugh, daughter Deninne Ann Watson, Son in Law Paul Watson, and son Jeffrey Birdsong. He is also survived by his grandchildren Frank J. Doss III, Candice Nicole Birdsong, Rodney Gaugh, Vanessa Gaugh, Brandon Eric Watson; and also his great grandchildren.

Floyd was very passionate about God and spent most of his life serving the Lord in numerous ministries. He was a member of Westover Hills Assembly of God for over 20 years and enjoyed sharing the word of God with everyone he met. He was a very family oriented man and made it a priority to raise his children in a Christian home.

Floyd Birdsong had a special way of touching people's lives by uplifting their spirit no matter what they were going through and he always shared his love unconditionally with others.

*Well, Brother Floyd, you made it into the Glory before me. Know you are Awestruck with what you are seeing and enjoying. I wish there was someway you could tell me what you think about you new Spirit body.
Having a time of enjoying our memories together here.
See you later my Brother. Hope it won't be too long. Love you Diane.
Connie and I always loved being with y'all.
Remember to Rejoice in the Lord always. Helps keep us remember whose we are. ❤️🙏🏻🕊️👍*
