Coach always believed in me. sometimes more than I believed in myself. Coach taught me that it's not just about winning the game, but about showing up, giving your all, and lifting up the people around you. I'm carrying that lesson forward, on and off the field, so his legacy keeps making an impact every single day.

I really miss you coach.

“ We knew him as Coach Glen White, so to all the San Antonio Warriors family, please know that our prayers are with you and your tight-knit crew and players! This news hit us pretty hard...Coach Glen had informed us about his battle with cancer back in 2022; he said the doctors informed him that he only had a few months; he proved them wrong. We last saw Coach Glen at your 2023 State Quarter Finals playoff game, and it brought us great joy to see how well he was doing.

We're blessed to have known such a God-fearing, uplifting, and inspirational leader. Coach Glen was a true gift to everyone, and we offer our deepest condolences to everyone he knew, especially his amazing wife Stephanie and the kids.

With Great Love & Care,
