“ I was shocked to hear about "hootie" passing.
I am shocked about the flood of memories past: from football to staying at the Cravey homestead working with the sheep and running wild in the fields. To the family I can only say he will be remembered.

“ To say Hootie was one of a kind is putting it mildly. How can you even describe him? He was funny, crazy, soft hearted, lovable, tough, determined...a thousand adjectives couldn't sum up his character. Many of us started first grade with Hoot. Losing him
